

Get Political for Animals and Win the Laws They Need:

Why and How to Launch a Voting Bloc for Animals in Your Town, City, County or State

A manual for rights and rescue advocates and organizations

---

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments.....	13
About NIFAA: The National Institute for Animal Advocacy.....	14

Part I THE FOUNDATION

Introduction: “Dare to Imagine What Politics Can Be”.....	15
Chapter 1 We Can Be Power Players Who Win Strong Laws for Animals
Quotes: Leonard, Phillips, Greene, Sten, Lawlor, Sunstein, Hill, Hillel.....	17
Power Axioms.....	17
A lawmaker’s primary concern is to be re-elected .....	19
A voting bloc is an accountability delivery system with three parts.....	20
Defining a member of a voting bloc.....	23
The Arithmetic of Elections.....	23
Deconstruct a Typical Election.....	27
How could the losing candidate have won?.....	29
Lawmakers won’t ignore animal advocates anymore, because they can’t .....	31
INTERVIEWS:
Greene: The thrill of becoming political. The easiest way to wield power is to ask people to vote who traditionally aren’t asked .....	34
Rapoport: Endorse, mobilize, and strategize.....	34
CHARTS/ SIDEBARS/ ILLUSTRATIONS:
The Voting Bloc Is an Accountability System.....	22
Elections Are Often Hair-Close: Opportunities for Animals Lost.....	24
Only About 40% Bothered to Vote on Election Day, November 7, 2006.....	25
Voter Participation in a Typical State.....	26
Large, robust heart and tiny, weak heart.....	27
Sample Elections: DeKalb County, Georgia; New York City; St. Paul, Minnesota.....	28
Scales of justice: Lobbying by individuals...charities...political organizations.....	32
The Most Important Power Lesson of All .....	35
Very Close Statehouse Races.....	36
Chapter 2 The Dynamics of Social Change: From Charity to Political Organization
Quotes: Simon, Fisk, Grimes, Alinsky, Lieberman.....	37
Social Change Axioms.....	37
From ancient times to the present: The six phases of social change.....	39
Where we are now.....	41
A strategy is only as good as its weakest link.....	43
Change is incremental, ratcheting up the culture in fits and starts.....	43
Self-expression not effective advocacy-image, tone, methods as strategy decisions.....	44

Media coverage con and pro.....	44
Petitions: Are yours useless—or power tools?.....	45
Ballot initiatives and referenda: Have a voting bloc structure in place first.....	47
Protests con and pro.....	47
Don't be a hit-and-run activist.....	48
Think big, but from the ground up.....	48
The “negative rebel”.....	48
Use your voting bloc to win enforcement of laws and ordinances for animals.....	49
INTERVIEWS:
Stallwood: Make the status of animals a mainstream political issue.....	40
Krisko: Petitions had no impact on our county commissioners. Functioning politically won us a unanimous vote.....	40
Muller: Don't underestimate the power of very few voters.....	40
Leonard: Why do animal advocates suffer a political disconnect?.....	42
Bernhard: You have a great deal of power that has been underutilized.....	49
Jacobs: Legislators want to please groups with a track record of turning out voters.....	49
IN PRINT:
The Merits Mean (Almost) Nothing.....	42
CHARTS/SIDEBARS/ILLUSTRATIONS:
Familiar political organizations.....	39
The membrane.....	44
Politically designed petition.....	46
Animal Advocacy in the US Today—and the Continuum of Change.....	50

Chapter 3 The Structure of Government—and Why Activists Need to Know It

Quotes: Jefferson, Adams, League of Women Voters, Pogo.....	51
Government Axioms.....	51
The animal activist must know the structure of government.....	52
The Three Branches of Government: Executive, Legislative, Judicial.....	52
The Four Levels of Government: Federal (national); State; County; City/Town.....	52
The four levels of government and lawmaking.....	52
Which level does what.....	52
Why it matters to you and the animals.....	52
The executive branch.....	53
Some states elect commissioners with authority over animals.....	53
The legislative branch.....	53
Government Lexicon.....	54
State legislatures.....	56
County governments.....	56
Municipal governments.....	57
Election cycles and terms of office at different levels of government.....	59
Term limits.....	59
Ballot initiatives.....	61
The judicial branch.....	62
The courts, civil and criminal.....	62
Judges, district attorneys, attorneys general, and sheriffs are elected or appointed.....	63
Win new court precedents for animals.....	64
“One person, one vote” and “equal representation”.....	64

The US Census and redistricting.....	64
FOIA: Freedom of Information Acts.....	67
Investigate your local animal control department.....	67
Learn the puppy mills your local pet stores buy from.....	68
IN PRINT:
Legislators Target Voters, Ignore Nonvoters.....	65
Redistricting Helps Two Area Lawmakers.....	65
CASE STUDIES:
To stop bad regulations, target the governor.....	60
FOIA Case study 1 A governor’s hunting task force.....	66
FOIA Case study 2 Public universities.....	66
CHARTS/SIDEBARS:
Structure of Town, City, and County Governments.....	58
Structure of a State Government.....	58
Election Cycles and Terms of Office at Different Levels of Government.....	59
How the Executive Branch Affects Animals.....	60
Confusing terms and titles: “House,” “assembly district,” “representative,” “Congress”.....	66
Resources.....	68
Primary Elections Can Be More Important Than November’s General Elections .....	69
I’m a Constituent of.....	69
Four Levels of Government: Maps with Political District Boundaries.....	70
Municipal Level: Kokomo, Indiana and Los Angeles, California.....	70
Georgia: Counties and DeKalb County.....	71
Georgia General Assembly: State Senate Districts and State House Districts.....	72
Kansas: Congressional Districts and Counties.....	74
Chapter 4 The Structure of Politics, the Culture of Politics, and the Political Mind
Quotes: Courant , Markley, Mustone, Goodheart.....	75
Political Culture Axioms.....	75
Structure of Politics Lexicon.....	76
A pro-active chair of a town, city, county, or state political committee is a power broker who can influence how lawmakers vote.....	76
The structure of politics is the structure of the major political parties.....	76
Town, city, county committees; state central committees; national committees.....	77
National party political committees.....	77
State central committees.....	79
Town, city, and county political committees.....	79
The structure of politics inside the statehouse and town, city, and county hall.....	79
Lawmakers’ party caucuses and animal legislation.....	79
All politics is local.....	80
Rewards and punishments in the legislative branch.....	81
Patronage and nepotism.....	81
Constituent service.....	82
Often a lawmaker is willing to introduce legislation for a constituent.....	82
INTERVIEW:
Ferber: Voting blocs are key to enforcement.....	82
IN PRINT:
Why Mobilizing Voters Matters and How to Increase Voter Turnout.....	78
Howard Dean’s Plan to Rebuild the Democratic Party—Start on the ground.....	78
CASE STUDY:

The Voting Bloc System Trumps Political Hierarchy and Loyalty.....	78
CHART:
The Structure of Politics Is the Structure of Major Political Parties .....	76

Chapter 5 50% + 1: The Dynamics and Mechanics of Political Campaigns and Voting Blocs' Role

Quotes: Swan, Matteson, Wilson, Colson.....	83
Refreshers .....	83
Political Campaign Axioms.....	84
Campaign Lexicon.....	84
Understand how lawmakers vote on legislation by understanding campaigns.....	85
Voting bloc organizations conduct their own GOTVs for their endorsed candidates.....	85
The political candidate, “wannabe” candidate, and political operatives study the politics of the district and size up the opponent.....	87
Political interest groups and emerging voting blocs in the district.....	88
How a person becomes a political candidate.....	88
Campaign issues: Schools and taxes.....	89
Campaign Phase I.....	90
The candidate assembles a lean, mean, fightin’ machine.....	90
The campaign’s sacred basic tools: District map and voter registration list.....	90
District boundaries.....	91
The campaign sets a campaign strategy and detailed game plan.....	91
Campaign Phase II.....	92
Endorsements and political organizations, including yours.....	93
Excitement: When candidates first ask for your endorsement!.....	95
Bonds between a voting bloc and a lawmaker can begin in his first campaign... ..	95
Door-knocking.....	95
Candidates shore up and motivate their base within their own party.....	97
Phone-banking: ID calls, persuasion calls.....	97
Our voting blocs can run phone banks to elect our candidates.....	97
Voter registration drives swell your list with previously registered voters, too... ..	99
Letters to new registrants are a marvelous tool for us.....	99
18-year-olds deserve our special attention.....	101
Absentee ballots are critically important.....	101
Campaign Phase III The GOTV: The Get-Out-the-Vote on Election Day.....	103
Offer advocates rides to the polls, “marking the boards,” “closing” the polls... ..	104
Other Election Scenarios. ....	106
Primary elections: Voter participation is low, which we can use to great advantage....	106
Forcing a party primary with petitions.....	106
Petitioning candidates; petitioning is labor-intensive: should we try it?.....	107
Special elections: Voter participation is remarkably low—use this to great advantage..	107
Volunteering in Political Campaigns Is Mandatory for Advocates!.....	107
Choose your candidates realistically and strategically.....	108
Loyalty is paramount when you endorse.....	109
Incumbents’ advantage? Not if the lawmaker has ignored an emerging voting bloc....	109
“Special interest” money in campaigns and its influence on the lawmaking process....	109
Should Animal Advocates Run for Office? Absolutely, but only when they’re ready

...support, or run as, third-party candidates?.....	110
INTERVIEWS:
Max: Until you realize you won't win by being right, you'll get nowhere.....	92
Wilson: Get political in Pennsylvania to beat its puppy mills.....	94
Vetter: We ousted the "gang of five" county commissioners.....	96
Gans: In some districts, the relevant election is the primary.....	100
Matteson: We haven't needed to contribute to political campaigns.....	102
Pollyea: Learning what lawmakers care about most to pass an ordinance for animals.....	105
Harmon: Campaigns as a Science.....	114
IN PRINT:
Getting Out the Vote Is (Almost) Everything.....	94
The Power of the GOTV: The Case of Kansas.....	94
Create the Voting Habit Among Your Supporters.....	94
The 1996 Presidential Election Turnout Was the Lowest in Two Centuries.....	102
I Was Elected Mayor with the Support of 6 Percent of the Adult Population.....	105
CASE STUDIES:
The 2004 presidential campaign: John Kerry in camouflage.....	96
Bob Megna ran a stealth campaign and got elected state representative.....	96
Endorse a winner, and he might get you a 38/0 vote.....	100
Third-party candidates and the Working Families Party.....	100
CHARTS/SIDEBARS/ILLUSTRATIONS:
Political jurisdictions with district lines.....	91
The Phases of a Political Campaign.....	102
Standard Phone-Bank Scripts Political Campaigns Use.....	112
Phone-Bank Script for Your Political Organization.....	112
Do Issue Polling to Expand Your List; Sample Script.....	113
Must Refresher.....	113

Part II THE APPLICATION

Chapter 6 How the Lawmaking Process Really Works—and the Role of the Voting Bloc System
Quotes: Jennings, McCluskey, Rapoport, O'Neill, Brown, Allen.....	115
Refreshers .....	115
Lawmaking Axioms.....	116
Lawmakers' considerations in deciding to support or oppose a bill or ordinance.....	118
High-speed traffic nightmare, or molasses.....	118
A couple of advocates can run a local voting bloc and still hold day jobs.....	119
"All politics is local".....	120
Learning to Love the Building.....	120
Schmooze; Fieldwork; Baseline Facts.....	120
"Where were you, where is she?".....	120
It's a process, not a showdown (at least you won't act like it is).....	121
Learn through observation.....	122
Know the political affiliation and rank of every lawmaker; the number of law- makers in the lawmaking body; which party holds the majority of seats.....	123
In the statehouse.....	123
In town, city, or county hall.....	123
Lawmaking Lexicon.....	124
The power of political leadership in the statehouse and party caucuses.....	125
The political composition of legislative committees.....	125

Leadership in county, city, and town halls.....	125
When leadership supports or opposes your proposal .....	127
Building a constituent base in top lawmakers’ districts is a priority.....	127
Deconstructing votes.....	128
Outside the Building.....	128
Newspapers.....	128
Political district maps, the voting bloc’s staff of life.....	128
At-large districts.....	128
District maps.....	129
Know the arithmetic of the last election.....	129
Town, city, county electoral arithmetic.....	131
State electoral arithmetic.....	131
Do a voter participation chart for your jurisdiction.....	131
Read existing laws and ordinances that apply to animals in your jurisdiction.....	131
Choosing Your First Issue and Getting Sponsors.....	131
Drafting your bill or proposed ordinance.....	131
“Scorecard” bills and proposed ordinances.....	132
You need “protectors.....	132
Amendments.....	133
The closer you get to winning, the more likely bad amendments will be attempted.....	133
Amendments must be germane.....	133
Be prepared to compromise.....	133
Write compromises yourself.....	133
The power of your voting bloc’s constituent alerts.....	134
Bring constituents to committee votes.....	135
Vote counts are essential throughout the lawmaking process.....	135
The Voting Bloc in Action: Key “Pressure Points” During the Lawmaking Process
When Your Voting Bloc Makes All the Difference.....	135
The Lawmaking Process in the Statehouse.....	137
Charities of other issue groups lobby through affiliated political organizations.....	138
Lawmakers and lobbyists play to win.....	139
The bill pyramid: so many bills, so little time.....	139
Just because a lawmaker introduces a bill for you doesn’t mean it will go anywhere...	140
How majority and minority leadership decide which lawmakers to appoint to which legislative committees.....	140
Majority and minority leadership reward and punish other lawmakers—the relevance to your lobbying strategy.....	141
The power of the committee chair; rewards and punishments.....	141
Before you “open up a statute”.....	143
Use the Pressure Point System in the Statehouse to Win Laws for Animals.....	143
Targeting initial sponsors for your bill.....	143
Caution: The process varies in different legislatures.....	145
Lobby a Bill: The Key Pressure Points of the Nickie Bill.....	147
List and evaluate the committees your bill would need to pass through to survive.....	147
“Neutralizing” opposing lawmakers.....	148
Make a calendar of the Pressure Points that Nickie must survive.....	148

Talking points for lawmakers.....	155
Flyers for lawmakers.....	155
Use the Pressure Point System to Kill Anti-Animal Bills: Strategies.....	159
It’s easier to kill a bill than to pass one.....	159
Focus on the committee chair, and on the bill screening committee.....	159
Amendment strategies to turn bad bills into “talkers”.....	161
....slow down bad bills.... add a damaging fiscal note.....	162
Amendment “cons”.....	162
Test the waters a year ahead.....	163
The Lawmaking Process in County, City, and Town Halls.....	163
Do your fieldwork.....	163
Choose your ordinance; write your ordinance.....	164
Use the Pressure Point System to Win County, City, or Town Ordinances.....	165
Lobby an Ordinance: The Molly Memorial Act.....	167
Use the Voting Bloc System to Defeat Anti-Animal Ordinances.....	172
Enforcement: Use the Voting Bloc System to get laws enforced.....	173
Can a couple of activists make a difference? “Shelley” and “Hank” say “yes”.....	173
Know—and base your strategy on—the chain of command.....	174
A newsheet as a component of your strategy.....	174
Do it solo?.....	176
INTERVIEW:
O’Neil: Learn to Thrive in the Political Ecosystem—the Art of the Deal.....	136
IN PRINT:
Majority or minority political party status? It matters.....	144
Circus lobbyist widely considered one of the most influential in Albany.....	163
CASE STUDY:
When leadership gives orders to its party’s rank-and-file lawmakers.....	154
CHARTS/SIDEBARS/ILLUSTRATIONS:
High-speed traffic nightmare, or molasses.....	119
Thirteen Reasons a Lawmaker Votes FOR or AGAINST Your Bill or Ordinance.....	130
Eight Other Reasons a Lawmaker May Vote AGAINST It.....	130
Selecting a Bill or Proposed Ordinance.....	132
Drafting Your Bill or Proposed Ordinance, Do’s and Don’ts.....	134
The Political Mind: What Lawmakers Ask Themselves, The Lawmaker’s Checklist.....	138
Bill pyramid—so many bills, so little time.....	139
Sample State Lawmaking Process: The Pressure Points.....	142
The Structure of a State Government and Political Structure of State Legislatures.....	144
The Political Structure of a State Senate Committee.....	146
The Membership and Politics of Connecticut’s Environment Committee.....	146
The Lawmaking Process Varies from Statehouse to Statehouse: Assume Nothing.....	160
Possible Sources of Opposition to a Bill or Proposed Ordinance for Animals.....	162
Sample Structure and Political Structure of County, City and Town Governments.....	164
Sample Town, City, and County Lawmaking Process.....	166

Chapter 7 Playing to Win: The Pro-Active Lobbyist for a Political Organization Is a Power Player

Quotes: Wilde, Jagger.....	177
Refreshers .....	177
Lobbying Axioms.....	177

The lobbyist’s power comes from the voting bloc, from the ground up.....	179
The lobbyist has four primary tasks.....	179
Becoming a lobbyist.....	180
The lobbyist keeps emotion to herself.....	180
The lobbyist charts the path—all the pressure points—the proposal must survive.....	181
...is always working many steps ahead.....	181
...uses small-talk to forge relationships, and to get, not give, information.....	181
The “need-to-know rule” applies: “Loose lips sink ships”.....	182
Be in the building: Most work is done running into lawmakers.....	182
How a lawmaker thinks.....	182
Ask lawmakers for favors.....	182
You need “protector” lawmakers.....	183
The lobbyist is always updating her “vote count”.....	183
Undecided, “swing” votes.....	183
“We have a new member in your district”.....	183
Scorecard issues and endorsement questionnaires.....	183
Never mislead or distort.....	183
Assume lawmakers’ profound ignorance or misconceptions.....	183
Inconsistent lawmakers.....	184
Speak lean.....	184
Bait.....	184
Begin your rap this way.....	184
One proposal at a time.....	184
Know where you stand.....	184
“May I count on your vote?”.....	184
“What problem do you have? How can we fix it?”.....	185
The non -lobbyist never negotiates with lawmakers or opposing lobbyists.....	185
Possible compromises.....	186
Dividing and conquering.....	186
Petitions that work.....	187
Why a lawmaker “offers” amendments.....	187
Plotting and scheming.....	189
Voting bloc system to the rescue.....	189
Betrayal: When a lawmaker breaks a commitment.....	189
Some lawmakers lie to constituents who aren’t in an organized voting bloc.....	189
Grooming lawmakers to get more out of them.....	190
Coalition lobbying.....	190
Kick-off meetings.....	190
“Lobby days”.....	190
“I know someone”.....	191
Should you hire a contract lobbyist?.....	191
Money, power, and corporate lobbyists—how to beat them.....	193
Undeniable fact: A politically organized grassroots beats corporate money.....	194
Ascendancy in politics: Be loyal to your friends and don’t make enemies.....	195
Be a social climber for the animals.....	195
Do I have respect or affection for lawmakers? Did I enjoy lobbying?.....	195

Don't be scared off.....	196
INTERVIEW:
Dillard: Two cautions.....	191
IN PRINT:
Tricks the Other Side Uses.....	196
CASE STUDIES:
Stop a bad bill or ordinance by being a “regular” in the building.....	186
Compromising is not always necessary.....	188
CHARTS/SIDEBARS:
The Pro-Active Lobbyist for a Political Organization: “May I count on your vote?”
The Lobbyist.....	178
Example: Flyer for Lawmakers.....	192
Example: Talking Points for Lawmakers.....	194

Part III MAKE IT HAPPEN: HOW TO LAUNCH YOUR VOTING BLOC FOR ANIMALS

Chapter 8 The Legal Side: How Individuals, Informal Animal Rights and Rescue Groups, and Charities Can Launch Political Organizations for Animals

Quotes: Pacelle, Alinsky, Frost.....	197
From Charity to Voting Bloc: My Personal Journey.....	198
Legal Lexicon.....	200
Harsh words.....	201
Get Ready to Form a Voting Bloc/Political Organization.....	201
To succeed, your voting bloc needs complete freedom to lobby and electioneer.....	202
If you're an individual or a few people who want to form a political group.....	203
If you're on the board of an all-volunteer charity and want to form a political group...	203
If you're an existing all-volunteer charity, without an office or staff.....	204
If your existing animal charity has an office or animal shelter or staff.....	204
The categories reflect laws about income, donations, and taxes.....	204
Tax-Exempt Organizations: The Basics Explained
The Categories: Ad Hoc Groups, Charities, Political Lobbying Organizations, PACS, and
Affiliated Charitable and Political Organizations.....	206
Ad hoc political groups.....	206
Charities.....	206
Political lobbying organizations.....	207
Ballot initiatives.....	209
PACs.....	210
Incorporation.....	214
“QSLPOs”.....	214
Affiliated Charitable, Lobbying, and Political Organizations: Your Whole Is More
Than the Sum of Its Parts.....	215
If you're now a 501(c)(3).....	216
Many state and local advocacy efforts begin as c4 organizations or PACs.....	216
An Affiliation Model.....	216
If you're a charity that's forming a c4 affiliate.....	217
Joint fundraising among your affiliates.....	217
Can a tax-exempt organization move money to its affiliate? Generally not.....	218
Animal Charities Can Support Your C(4) with Money and Members.....	219

Your First Steps in Forming a C(4) Political Lobbying Organization.....	219
Liability.....	220
Avoid missteps, stick to the law!.....	220
Congratulations on becoming an employer!.....	221
INTERVIEW:
Moore: Until You Organize, You Won't Have Power in the Corridors of Power.....	218
CASE STUDY:
The California Animal Association—15 Charities and a PAC.....	223
CHARTS/SIDEBARS:
Relaxer re EINs.....	205
About the term “PAC”.....	205
History of Nonprofit Organizations—And why animal advocacy stayed out of politics.....	208
What Each Type of Tax-Exempt Organization Can and Can't Do Politically.....	212
RESOURCES to help you get.....	222
Agencies to Check with about Voting Bloc Activity.....	223
Limits on Political Donations: Your State's Laws.....	224

Chapter 9 How to Use Media to Help Win Laws for Animals—and When to Avoid It

Quotes: Jacklin, Orwell, Lincoln, the Bible.....	225
Refreshers .....	225
Media Axioms.....	225
Media as a component of a political lobbying strategy.....	226
Maximize your number of hits with an “advance”.....	227
Use media to create an issue, a concern, a scandal.....	227
...to create controversy to defeat a proposal.....	227
Name recognition: Use media to fashion yourself/your group as the leader.....	229
...to reassure, foster member and donor loyalty.....	229
Caution: Don't let pursuit of media detract from recruitment.....	229
Become Media Savvy: Think Like an Editor.....	229
Pitching a Story: Like politics, all media are local.....	231
Think like a camera person.....	231
The Associated Press's “daily calendar”; radio syndicates.....	231
Form relationships with editors and reporters.....	233
Pitching an editorial.....	234
Letters to the editor.....	234
Good activist writing: Press releases, newsletters, activist alerts, talking points and flyers for lawmakers, letters to the editor, Op-Ed pieces.....	235
CASE STUDIES:
Fawn hunting.....	228
State regulation of animal rescue.....	233
Leghold traps.....	234
Leghold traps again.....	235
Puppy mill exposés.....	236
Puppy mill exposés again.....	236
A lawmaker exploits the puppy mill issue.....	237
CHARTS/SIDEBARS:
Media Plan as Part of a Political Strategy.....	228
Media's Role in Helping Achieve Laws for Animals.....	228
Write Economically.....	228

Control Your Media Interview.....	230
Pitching Your Story.....	232
About Press Releases; A Sample.....	238

Chapter 10 Make It Happen: How to Launch Your Voting Bloc for Animals

Quotes: Twain, Kennedy, Einstein, West/Galeono, Trippi, Merriam, Murrow.....	239
Refresher .....	239
Launch Axioms.....	239
Model and Structure of Your Voting Bloc Organization.....	245
The Three Elements: Purpose, Geography, Membership.....	245
The Four Tasks: Recruitment, Lobbying, Electioneering, Administration.....	245
Recruitment by political district.....	245
Lobbying.....	245
Electioneering: endorsements and the GOTV.....	246
Administration.....	246
Decision Time: Ad Hoc Group, C4, State PAC, 527, or Affiliates.....	246
Initial and Perpetual Recruitment.....	247
Defining a member: Think outside the box.....	247
Your literature: Basic flyer, endorsement list, voter registration forms, surveys, petitions.....	247
Recruitment Methods.....	248
Local and national charities can legally rent their membership lists to your group.....	248
Tabling...with surveys and petitions.....	249
Voter registration drives sign up many already-registered voters.....	251
Send form letters to new voters.....	252
...have a version for 18-year-old first-time voters.....	252
Table and canvass strategically.....	252
“Visibility van”.....	253
Protests: Be opportunistic.....	253
Be opportunistic in other ways.....	253
Political-organizing parties.....	253
Endorsements: The Key to Your Identity and Power.....	254
Sample endorsement questionnaire.....	254
The Moment of Truth: Your GOTV (Get Out the Vote) Campaign.....	256
GOTV timetable.....	256
Ever More Powerful: Sustaining and Advancing Your Voting Bloc.....	260
Fundraising: You’ve Got to Ask!.....	261
Let’s Join Together with SIEAAO: Society of Independent Endorsing Animal Advocacy Organizations.....	262
Let’s Stay in Touch, Get Together.....	263
“ If the student does not surpass the teacher, the teacher has failed ”.....	263
INTERVIEWS:
Phillips: A Great Recruitment Idea and an Awesome Internet GOTV.....	255
Robinson: Stop your town from killing cats by getting political.....	264
IN PRINT:
The Leader of the Humane Society Legislative Fund Door-Knocks for the GOTV.....	257
Trippi: Use the Internet to Organize Politically.....	257

CASE STUDY:
I found out bad things about a dog pound by examining public documents.....	264
CHARTS/SIDEBARS:
Launching Your Voting Bloc for Animals: The Big 12 You Need to Start.....	240
Checklist: Launching Your Political Organization.....	244
Recruitment Sources.....	249
Julie’s Election-Day GOTV Fantasy for Your Voting Bloc for Animals.....	257
Let’s Join Together: I’m Forming SIEAAO.....	262
Chapter 11 Political Quiz: Read Between the Lines.....	265